A LOOK AT PAST EVENTS

JUDGE SHIRLEY A. TOLENTINO POST OFFICE BUILDING POST OFFICE DEDICATION FOR THE LATE JUDGE SHIRLEY TOLENTINO

Jersey City dedicated the Bergen South Post Office on Martin Luther King Drive the "Judge Shirley A. Tolentino Post Office Building." Shirley A. Tolentino was the first female African-American Jersey City Municipal Court judge, the first black female presiding judge of the Jersey City Municipal Court, and in 1984, she became the first female African-American Superior Court judge in the state.

The ceremony took place inside a large tent in front of the post office. Despite the bitter cold weather, it was warm inside the tent, thanks in part to the more than 150 people who attended. The ceremony featured a presentation of colors by the Lincoln High School Honor Guard and a moving rendition of Whitney Houston's "Greatest Love of All" by Renata Thomas, a Fred W. Martin Performing Arts middle schooler.
